Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Odd Farmhouse Our search for a house in the country led us further and further to exceed that fifty mile radius round London within which we had hoped to find what we wanted. Without pause we passed through the purlieus of modern red-brick suburban villas, which we would not have, to the remoter territory of great houses seated in their parks, which we could not have. We drove about, skirting the edges of these lordly domains, in the hope of something humbler, but with no success; and the ill-concealed contempt of the parasites and snobs who thrive in the shadow of such feudal landlordism roused our resentment. We resolved to breathe a more democratic air, where the whole neighbourhood did not hang upon the importance and patronage of a few great families. We, being not petty tradesmen, flunkeys, pensioners, peasants, pheasants, or other dependents, there was no place for us.
