Now put down the syllabus and pick up this book! Ellen Bremen's book is a must-read if you want to know how to make your college career a complete success." -- Chris Westfall , 2011 Elevator Pitch champion, MBA instructor Southern Methodist University, and author of The New Elevator Pitch "Crossing wits with your superiors is never a good way to get ahead. "Say This, Not That to Your Professor: 36 Talking Tips for College Success" is an advisory guide for college students to form a better relationship with their professors, when to be friendly and when to own up to one's mistakes." -- Midwest Book Review "Ellen is the Dear Abby of college professors, so respectful, and with amazing wisdom about the inner workings of college." -- Vicki Davis, author of the award winning Cool Cat Teacher blog, Lifetime Television for Women, "The Balancing Act" blogger, and co-author of the upcoming Flattening Classrooms, Expanding Minds. "Professors made a huge impact in my life and Ellen shows students how to make the most of these relationships to fuel their educational goals. This book is a must-read for every college student." -- Isa Adney , author of Community College Success: How to Finish with Friends, Scholarships, Internships, and the Career of Your Dreams. "I wish every one of my students would read this book! As a communication studies professor the best thing that I can say about this book is that it takes solid communication theory and puts it into an accessible format that will motivate students. The second best thing I can say about it is that this stuff works! I have been in many (probably most) of...
