Not illustrated. 1917 Excerpt: .(see Sec. 43), and he also managed to secure the passage of a law to establish schools in the other counties, although the establishment was not effected. In 1723 a system of county schools was established; pupils of all grades of learning were received and prepared for college. For about a century these were the only public schools of Maryland. An attempt was made in 1825 to reform the system, but very little was actually accomplished. The Constitution of 1867 required the legislature to establish a thorough and efficient system of free public schools, and accordingly laws were passed providing a regular organization of boards and officials to manage the schools and direct the work of the teachers. In 1914 an act of the legislature provided for a commission to conduct a school survey, that is, a careful study by experts of the entire educational work...
