Thank you for your patience! Book Two of the Courage, Love and the Meaning of Christmas trilogy. Book one (Courage, Love and the Meaning of Christmas) revealed the meaning of life through an engaging story full of adventure and romance. Book two poses and answers the question of whether people can really change inside, whether the deepest wounds can ever heal, whether life can rise above the mediocre, and whether impossible dreams can come true. This year, its Skis turn for a miracle. But when the miracle comes, will he accept it Can he grasp the truth while theres still time And what about Spencer When the truth comes knocking, will he pay attention Many dreams came true for him over the past year, but that doesnt mean they cant fall apart. Can people ever really change Madison Ski certainly hopes so. Hes a brilliant young man who has always had everything figured out so clearly, but now he has a reason to reconsider. All his hopes for happiness and love depend on discovering that he was wrong. The story picks up a year after book one, but it doesnt start out the way you probably expected. Much has changed over the last year, but nearly as much as is about to! Youll never guess the plot twists that will keep you...
