This implies the omission of many minor topics and detached facts, and the grouping of each history assignment around one central organizing idea. For example, the entire history of our country during the twenty-six years from 1763 to 1789 may be studied from the standpoint of three large projects, namely: (1) Were the ideals of the French or of the English to shape the future of North America? It will be found that these discussions are built upon the project method; that is, they organize knowledge around a central idea. To assist teachers in organizing the facts of history so as to use the project method, a detailed outline is given on page...
