America from the other side of the tracks. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 220 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.5in. This is a remarkable true story. In the 1970s, Mike Feistel took to the rails and traveled across America. During his travels, he crossed paths with a fifteen year old homeless boy, Curtis, who had been thrown out of his mothers home by her abusive, alcoholic boyfriend. When Mike and Curtis cross paths at the rescue mission in Yakima, Washington, Curtis pleads with Mike to help him get back to his fathers house in Dallas, Texas. But Mike didnt want to take on the responsibility of traveling across the nation by freight train with a fifteen year old kid. He had his own life to live, and his own plans. However, after hearing a convicting sermon delivered by the preacher man at the mandatory church service that evening, Mike had a change of heart - and decided to take the kid under his wing. The next morning they departed from the Yakima switchyard on a freight train, headed across America toward Dallas, Texas. Thus began Curtiss amazing homeward journey, under the guidance and care of Mike. It would be a journey neither of them would ever forget. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
