Excerpt from Emancipated Woman Scene: - Kitchen in the Brownstone residence; (right) wash tub and clothes basket; stove (upright) with boiler in. containing clothes; clothes pins in boiler. Cradle or baby carriage containing baby in center. (Left) Table with the chairs. Cupboard containing dishes in left corner of room. Mr. Brownstone engaged in doing the family washing and tending the baby between times. Brownstone (soliloquising) My! I do wonder if this will ever come clean. I wish Maria would learn not to keep the towels down at the office until they get so dirty that they will stand alone. Surely there must have been a great change in the last hundred years. Last night after baby was asleep I ran across a book Mrs. Brownstone had been reading - A Description of Society as it existed in the year 1895. It seems like a dream to think of it. Why it seems that, at that time, men were actually at the head, not only of families, but of the government. But now what a change! Women not only run the government, but they run us too. and we. the former lords of creation, are compelled to attend to domestic affairs and bring up the children, while our wives and their friends while away their time at the clubs discussing financial questions - at least, that s what Maria says - but it seems kind of funny to me how she gets all that chalk on her clothes discussing - finance or they go to the races and bet their last dollar on their favorite horse. (Bell rings.) I suppose this is Mr. Beacon-street, stuck up old thing:...
